

Whiffy Wilson

The Wolf who wouldn't go to school

In this story, Wilson can't count to ten, paint or read a book. He does not want to go to school. Wilson thinks school will be boring. He would rather watch telly and stay up late at night. His friend Dotty takes him to school and shows him what a fun place it is. Wilson has a lovely time and can't wait to go back to school the next day.

Setting

Schools are places where children go to learn. There are many rooms inside, such as a cloakroom, toilets and classrooms. Outside, there is a playground and sports field. Students do fun activities in their classrooms, such as painting, making models and listening to stories.

Characters

Wilson is a young wolf. He thinks he is brave and strong. Wilson likes to play with Dotty. His favourite game is football.

Dotty is a kind, caring girl. She takes Wilson to school and looks after him all day. She enjoys spending time with Wilson.

Father wants Wilson to go to school. He thinks his son is a pesky little pup.

Children on the sports field play football with Wilson and Dotty.

The teacher reads a story to the children at the end of the day. She gives Wilson a golden star for his lovely work.

Rhyming words

- ten and pen
- paw and door
- cook and book
- best and rest

Can you find any other words in the story that rhyme?

Wilson's day at school

Wilson finds his day at school fun. He thinks the teacher is kind and the classroom toys are cool. He joins in with lots of activities.

painting

shaping dough

playing football

making models

story time

Wilson thinks home is boring after his day at school. He wants to go to school every day.

